

STATES PLOTTING FOR NEW REPUBLIC

They Will Refuse to Support Government Headed by Huerta.

Laredo, Tex., February 21.—Eight Mexican States, Zacatecas, Coahuila, Nuevo Leon, Chihuahua, San Luis Potosi, Vera Cruz, Sinaloa and Puebla, have expressed dissatisfaction with the new regime in Mexico, and will not support the government set up by General Huerta, according to information gathered from a federal telegraph source here, and a civil war in an effort to establish a new republic to be composed of the Northern States is regarded as a possibility by men conversant with the affairs of Mexico. Because of the attitude of these states to the new regime, it is believed that the purpose of the Huerta movement was not to establish a new republic, but to support the government set up by General Huerta, according to information gathered from a federal telegraph source here, and a civil war in an effort to establish a new republic to be composed of the Northern States is regarded as a possibility by men conversant with the affairs of Mexico. Because of the attitude of these states to the new regime, it is believed that the purpose of the Huerta movement was not to establish a new republic, but to support the government set up by General Huerta, according to information gathered from a federal telegraph source here, and a civil war in an effort to establish a new republic to be composed of the Northern States is regarded as a possibility by men conversant with the affairs of Mexico.

It is rumored that Governor Carranza, of the State of Coahuila, is at the head of the movement, and that efforts are being made to bring about the secession of several other States. On the night, Madero was overthrown, it was reported that Governor Carranza had ordered the mobilization of troops at Piedras Negras, across the border from Eagle Pass, Tex., but the purpose of the movement was not stated. The report that General Pascual Orozco, Jr., was drowned last September while swimming the Rio Grande River, was denied to-day by General Orozco's father, Colonel Pascual Orozco, Sr., in a statement to the Associated Press.

"My son is in a remote part of the State of Coahuila, suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism. I have received a letter from him during the past two weeks," declared Colonel Orozco.

The National Railway of Mexico sent out its first passenger train in a week for Monterey to-day. The telegraph line south of Laredo is practically out of commission, and no international business is being done.

Eagle Pass has no telegraph service south of Saltillo, while the service between Mexico City and El Paso is still irregular.

GOFF, IN RICHMOND, ACCEPTS ELECTION

(Continued From First Page)

one year. His decisions have been highly regarded at all times.

Again and again have the Republicans of West Virginia beseeched him to go to the United States Senate, but he has refused to do so.

These entreaties, he is said, have been for a generation the idol of his party in his State, and is esteemed also by members of the other party.

Successor Discussed.

Much interest will now be taken in the succession to Judge Goff. It is argued that the appointment is quite likely to come to Virginia, since West Virginia has held it so long, and North Carolina is already represented on the court in the person of Judge Jeter C. Pritchard.

Richmond, Va., February 21.—The circuit judges also sit with the circuit judges to make up the court.

Richmond attorneys have already begun a move to present to President White, the name of Henry B. Pollard, now the attorney for this city, for the appointment. Mr. Pollard is a leading Democrat of the city and State, and his name is being put forward by many of the leading Democrats of the city.

His work as City Attorney has required close application to many important questions of law which were decided by the United States Supreme Court, and his success in handling them has won him a great credit upon his ability as a lawyer.

No doubt there will be candidates from other parts of the State and perhaps more from Richmond. The other States in the circuit are likely to be heard from.

Ends Long Deadlock.

Charleston, W. Va., February 21.—Nathan E. Goff, Judge of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, a Republican, was elected United States Senator to-day by a joint session of the West Virginia Legislature and the West Virginia Democratic Convention.

The election of Judge Goff, which broke a long deadlock, came only after two appeals of Governor-Elect Hatfield for harmony during a Republican caucus on the last day of the present legislative session.

After prolonged sessions during the night to center strength for one candidate, the Republican caucus practically agreed to support Judge Goff. This conclusion was not reached until after daylight. Many members of the Legislature failed to go to bed, and attended the legislative session later in the day than usual.

The day of the day—the fifteenth joint ballot since the beginning of the Legislature—resulted in Judge Goff getting sixty of the sixty-eight Republican votes, and the Republican members of the Legislature recently elected accepting bribes in connection with the candidacy of Colonel William Seymour Edwards, did not vote. Two members were absent. Clarence W. Watson received forty-three of the total forty-eight Democratic votes, the others being scattered.

Judge Goff announced he would resign from the Federal bench within the next few weeks. His term is for six years, beginning March 4 next.

Ends Long Deadlock.

Charleston, W. Va., February 21.—Nathan E. Goff, Judge of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, a Republican, was elected United States Senator to-day by a joint session of the West Virginia Legislature and the West Virginia Democratic Convention.

The election of Judge Goff, which broke a long deadlock, came only after two appeals of Governor-Elect Hatfield for harmony during a Republican caucus on the last day of the present legislative session.

After prolonged sessions during the night to center strength for one candidate, the Republican caucus practically agreed to support Judge Goff. This conclusion was not reached until after daylight. Many members of the Legislature failed to go to bed, and attended the legislative session later in the day than usual.

The day of the day—the fifteenth joint ballot since the beginning of the Legislature—resulted in Judge Goff getting sixty of the sixty-eight Republican votes, and the Republican members of the Legislature recently elected accepting bribes in connection with the candidacy of Colonel William Seymour Edwards, did not vote. Two members were absent. Clarence W. Watson received forty-three of the total forty-eight Democratic votes, the others being scattered.

Judge Goff announced he would resign from the Federal bench within the next few weeks. His term is for six years, beginning March 4 next.

Ends Long Deadlock.

Charleston, W. Va., February 21.—Nathan E. Goff, Judge of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, a Republican, was elected United States Senator to-day by a joint session of the West Virginia Legislature and the West Virginia Democratic Convention.

The election of Judge Goff, which broke a long deadlock, came only after two appeals of Governor-Elect Hatfield for harmony during a Republican caucus on the last day of the present legislative session.

After prolonged sessions during the night to center strength for one candidate, the Republican caucus practically agreed to support Judge Goff. This conclusion was not reached until after daylight. Many members of the Legislature failed to go to bed, and attended the legislative session later in the day than usual.

The day of the day—the fifteenth joint ballot since the beginning of the Legislature—resulted in Judge Goff getting sixty of the sixty-eight Republican votes, and the Republican members of the Legislature recently elected accepting bribes in connection with the candidacy of Colonel William Seymour Edwards, did not vote. Two members were absent. Clarence W. Watson received forty-three of the total forty-eight Democratic votes, the others being scattered.

Judge Goff announced he would resign from the Federal bench within the next few weeks. His term is for six years, beginning March 4 next.

Ends Long Deadlock.

Charleston, W. Va., February 21.—Nathan E. Goff, Judge of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, a Republican, was elected United States Senator to-day by a joint session of the West Virginia Legislature and the West Virginia Democratic Convention.

The election of Judge Goff, which broke a long deadlock, came only after two appeals of Governor-Elect Hatfield for harmony during a Republican caucus on the last day of the present legislative session.

After prolonged sessions during the night to center strength for one candidate, the Republican caucus practically agreed to support Judge Goff. This conclusion was not reached until after daylight. Many members of the Legislature failed to go to bed, and attended the legislative session later in the day than usual.

The day of the day—the fifteenth joint ballot since the beginning of the Legislature—resulted in Judge Goff getting sixty of the sixty-eight Republican votes, and the Republican members of the Legislature recently elected accepting bribes in connection with the candidacy of Colonel William Seymour Edwards, did not vote. Two members were absent. Clarence W. Watson received forty-three of the total forty-eight Democratic votes, the others being scattered.

Judge Goff announced he would resign from the Federal bench within the next few weeks. His term is for six years, beginning March 4 next.

Ends Long Deadlock.

Charleston, W. Va., February 21.—Nathan E. Goff, Judge of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, a Republican, was elected United States Senator to-day by a joint session of the West Virginia Legislature and the West Virginia Democratic Convention.

The election of Judge Goff, which broke a long deadlock, came only after two appeals of Governor-Elect Hatfield for harmony during a Republican caucus on the last day of the present legislative session.

After prolonged sessions during the night to center strength for one candidate, the Republican caucus practically agreed to support Judge Goff. This conclusion was not reached until after daylight. Many members of the Legislature failed to go to bed, and attended the legislative session later in the day than usual.

The day of the day—the fifteenth joint ballot since the beginning of the Legislature—resulted in Judge Goff getting sixty of the sixty-eight Republican votes, and the Republican members of the Legislature recently elected accepting bribes in connection with the candidacy of Colonel William Seymour Edwards, did not vote. Two members were absent. Clarence W. Watson received forty-three of the total forty-eight Democratic votes, the others being scattered.

Judge Goff announced he would resign from the Federal bench within the next few weeks. His term is for six years, beginning March 4 next.

Ends Long Deadlock.

Charleston, W. Va., February 21.—Nathan E. Goff, Judge of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, a Republican, was elected United States Senator to-day by a joint session of the West Virginia Legislature and the West Virginia Democratic Convention.

The election of Judge Goff, which broke a long deadlock, came only after two appeals of Governor-Elect Hatfield for harmony during a Republican caucus on the last day of the present legislative session.

After prolonged sessions during the night to center strength for one candidate, the Republican caucus practically agreed to support Judge Goff. This conclusion was not reached until after daylight. Many members of the Legislature failed to go to bed, and attended the legislative session later in the day than usual.

The day of the day—the fifteenth joint ballot since the beginning of the Legislature—resulted in Judge Goff getting sixty of the sixty-eight Republican votes, and the Republican members of the Legislature recently elected accepting bribes in connection with the candidacy of Colonel William Seymour Edwards, did not vote. Two members were absent. Clarence W. Watson received forty-three of the total forty-eight Democratic votes, the others being scattered.

Judge Goff announced he would resign from the Federal bench within the next few weeks. His term is for six years, beginning March 4 next.

Ends Long Deadlock.

Charleston, W. Va., February 21.—Nathan E. Goff, Judge of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, a Republican, was elected United States Senator to-day by a joint session of the West Virginia Legislature and the West Virginia Democratic Convention.

The election of Judge Goff, which broke a long deadlock, came only after two appeals of Governor-Elect Hatfield for harmony during a Republican caucus on the last day of the present legislative session.

After prolonged sessions during the night to center strength for one candidate, the Republican caucus practically agreed to support Judge Goff. This conclusion was not reached until after daylight. Many members of the Legislature failed to go to bed, and attended the legislative session later in the day than usual.

The day of the day—the fifteenth joint ballot since the beginning of the Legislature—resulted in Judge Goff getting sixty of the sixty-eight Republican votes, and the Republican members of the Legislature recently elected accepting bribes in connection with the candidacy of Colonel William Seymour Edwards, did not vote. Two members were absent. Clarence W. Watson received forty-three of the total forty-eight Democratic votes, the others being scattered.

Judge Goff announced he would resign from the Federal bench within the next few weeks. His term is for six years, beginning March 4 next.

Ends Long Deadlock.

Charleston, W. Va., February 21.—Nathan E. Goff, Judge of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, a Republican, was elected United States Senator to-day by a joint session of the West Virginia Legislature and the West Virginia Democratic Convention.

The election of Judge Goff, which broke a long deadlock, came only after two appeals of Governor-Elect Hatfield for harmony during a Republican caucus on the last day of the present legislative session.

After prolonged sessions during the night to center strength for one candidate, the Republican caucus practically agreed to support Judge Goff. This conclusion was not reached until after daylight. Many members of the Legislature failed to go to bed, and attended the legislative session later in the day than usual.

The day of the day—the fifteenth joint ballot since the beginning of the Legislature—resulted in Judge Goff getting sixty of the sixty-eight Republican votes, and the Republican members of the Legislature recently elected accepting bribes in connection with the candidacy of Colonel William Seymour Edwards, did not vote. Two members were absent. Clarence W. Watson received forty-three of the total forty-eight Democratic votes, the others being scattered.

Judge Goff announced he would resign from the Federal bench within the next few weeks. His term is for six years, beginning March 4 next.

Every sanitary precaution is taken at Broad Rock Spring and bottling house.

The spring itself is protected from contamination from surface water by concrete walls extending eight feet below ground. From the spring to the bottles the water comes in contact with nothing but pure block tin.

Broad Rock Water reaches you WONDERFULLY PURE.

CAUGHT BY WINDOW, CHILD IS KILLED

Sash Falls on Girl's Neck, and Strangulation Causes Her Death.

Galax, Va., February 21.—On Thursday afternoon, about 5 o'clock, on attempting to enter Forest Oak schoolhouse through a window to get her books, Mary Moore, was caught by the neck by a falling window sash, and when found three or four hours later was dead. She was ten years old, and the daughter of Monroe Moore, who is employed fifteen miles out in the country from Welsh, Va. She and her mother and two sisters were living at their home about ten miles east of Galax. Mary had been attending the Forest Oak school, which is about a quarter of a mile from her home, until a day or two before her death. On this day she had been to visit the home of her uncle, Jesse Mitchell, which is about half a mile from that of her mother, and at 5 o'clock left to return to her home. The road led by the schoolhouse, and it is clear that she had intended to enter to get her books, which she had left there a day or two before. Miss Blanche Larowe, the teacher, had locked the door and the child placed a sash under the window, stood on it and raised the window. When she attempted to climb in the sash fell, catching her by the neck. After dark, when she had failed to arrive at home, her mother called up the neighbors, and not being able to locate her, she turned a deaf ear to these entreaties. He is said to have been for a generation the idol of his party in his State, and is esteemed also by members of the other party.

Successor Discussed.

Much interest will now be taken in the succession to Judge Goff. It is argued that the appointment is quite likely to come to Virginia, since West Virginia has held it so long, and North Carolina is already represented on the court in the person of Judge Jeter C. Pritchard.

Richmond, Va., February 21.—The circuit judges also sit with the circuit judges to make up the court.

Richmond attorneys have already begun a move to present to President White, the name of Henry B. Pollard, now the attorney for this city, for the appointment. Mr. Pollard is a leading Democrat of the city and State, and his name is being put forward by many of the leading Democrats of the city.

His work as City Attorney has required close application to many important questions of law which were decided by the United States Supreme Court, and his success in handling them has won him a great credit upon his ability as a lawyer.

No doubt there will be candidates from other parts of the State and perhaps more from Richmond. The other States in the circuit are likely to be heard from.

Ends Long Deadlock.

Charleston, W. Va., February 21.—Nathan E. Goff, Judge of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, a Republican, was elected United States Senator to-day by a joint session of the West Virginia Legislature and the West Virginia Democratic Convention.

The election of Judge Goff, which broke a long deadlock, came only after two appeals of Governor-Elect Hatfield for harmony during a Republican caucus on the last day of the present legislative session.

After prolonged sessions during the night to center strength for one candidate, the Republican caucus practically agreed to support Judge Goff. This conclusion was not reached until after daylight. Many members of the Legislature failed to go to bed, and attended the legislative session later in the day than usual.

The day of the day—the fifteenth joint ballot since the beginning of the Legislature—resulted in Judge Goff getting sixty of the sixty-eight Republican votes, and the Republican members of the Legislature recently elected accepting bribes in connection with the candidacy of Colonel William Seymour Edwards, did not vote. Two members were absent. Clarence W. Watson received forty-three of the total forty-eight Democratic votes, the others being scattered.

Judge Goff announced he would resign from the Federal bench within the next few weeks. His term is for six years, beginning March 4 next.

Ends Long Deadlock.

Charleston, W. Va., February 21.—Nathan E. Goff, Judge of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, a Republican, was elected United States Senator to-day by a joint session of the West Virginia Legislature and the West Virginia Democratic Convention.

The election of Judge Goff, which broke a long deadlock, came only after two appeals of Governor-Elect Hatfield for harmony during a Republican caucus on the last day of the present legislative session.

After prolonged sessions during the night to center strength for one candidate, the Republican caucus practically agreed to support Judge Goff. This conclusion was not reached until after daylight. Many members of the Legislature failed to go to bed, and attended the legislative session later in the day than usual.

The day of the day—the fifteenth joint ballot since the beginning of the Legislature—resulted in Judge Goff getting sixty of the sixty-eight Republican votes, and the Republican members of the Legislature recently elected accepting bribes in connection with the candidacy of Colonel William Seymour Edwards, did not vote. Two members were absent. Clarence W. Watson received forty-three of the total forty-eight Democratic votes, the others being scattered.

Judge Goff announced he would resign from the Federal bench within the next few weeks. His term is for six years, beginning March 4 next.

Ends Long Deadlock.

Charleston, W. Va., February 21.—Nathan E. Goff, Judge of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, a Republican, was elected United States Senator to-day by a joint session of the West Virginia Legislature and the West Virginia Democratic Convention.

The election of Judge Goff, which broke a long deadlock, came only after two appeals of Governor-Elect Hatfield for harmony during a Republican caucus on the last day of the present legislative session.

After prolonged sessions during the night to center strength for one candidate, the Republican caucus practically agreed to support Judge Goff. This conclusion was not reached until after daylight. Many members of the Legislature failed to go to bed, and attended the legislative session later in the day than usual.

The day of the day—the fifteenth joint ballot since the beginning of the Legislature—resulted in Judge Goff getting sixty of the sixty-eight Republican votes, and the Republican members of the Legislature recently elected accepting bribes in connection with the candidacy of Colonel William Seymour Edwards, did not vote. Two members were absent. Clarence W. Watson received forty-three of the total forty-eight Democratic votes, the others being scattered.

Judge Goff announced he would resign from the Federal bench within the next few weeks. His term is for six years, beginning March 4 next.

Ends Long Deadlock.

Charleston, W. Va., February 21.—Nathan E. Goff, Judge of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, a Republican, was elected United States Senator to-day by a joint session of the West Virginia Legislature and the West Virginia Democratic Convention.

The election of Judge Goff, which broke a long deadlock, came only after two appeals of Governor-Elect Hatfield for harmony during a Republican caucus on the last day of the present legislative session.

After prolonged sessions during the night to center strength for one candidate, the Republican caucus practically agreed to support Judge Goff. This conclusion was not reached until after daylight. Many members of the Legislature failed to go to bed, and attended the legislative session later in the day than usual.

The day of the day—the fifteenth joint ballot since the beginning of the Legislature—resulted in Judge Goff getting sixty of the sixty-eight Republican votes, and the Republican members of the Legislature recently elected accepting bribes in connection with the candidacy of Colonel William Seymour Edwards, did not vote. Two members were absent. Clarence W. Watson received forty-three of the total forty-eight Democratic votes, the others being scattered.

Judge Goff announced he would resign from the Federal bench within the next few weeks. His term is for six years, beginning March 4 next.

Ends Long Deadlock.

Charleston, W. Va., February 21.—Nathan E. Goff, Judge of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, a Republican, was elected United States Senator to-day by a joint session of the West Virginia Legislature and the West Virginia Democratic Convention.

The election of Judge Goff, which broke a long deadlock, came only after two appeals of Governor-Elect Hatfield for harmony during a Republican caucus on the last day of the present legislative session.

After prolonged sessions during the night to center strength for one candidate, the Republican caucus practically agreed to support Judge Goff. This conclusion was not reached until after daylight. Many members of the Legislature failed to go to bed, and attended the legislative session later in the day than usual.

The day of the day—the fifteenth joint ballot since the beginning of the Legislature—resulted in Judge Goff getting sixty of the sixty-eight Republican votes, and the Republican members of the Legislature recently elected accepting bribes in connection with the candidacy of Colonel William Seymour Edwards, did not vote. Two members were absent. Clarence W. Watson received forty-three of the total forty-eight Democratic votes, the others being scattered.

Judge Goff announced he would resign from the Federal bench within the next few weeks. His term is for six years, beginning March 4 next.

Ends Long Deadlock.

Charleston, W. Va., February 21.—Nathan E. Goff, Judge of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, a Republican, was elected United States Senator to-day by a joint session of the West Virginia Legislature and the West Virginia Democratic Convention.

The election of Judge Goff, which broke a long deadlock, came only after two appeals of Governor-Elect Hatfield for harmony during a Republican caucus on the last day of the present legislative session.

After prolonged sessions during the night to center strength for one candidate, the Republican caucus practically agreed to support Judge Goff. This conclusion was not reached until after daylight. Many members of the Legislature failed to go to bed, and attended the legislative session later in the day than usual.

The day of the day—the fifteenth joint ballot since the beginning of the Legislature—resulted in Judge Goff getting sixty of the sixty-eight Republican votes, and the Republican members of the Legislature recently elected accepting bribes in connection with the candidacy of Colonel William Seymour Edwards, did not vote. Two members were absent. Clarence W. Watson received forty-three of the total forty-eight Democratic votes, the others being scattered.

Judge Goff announced he would resign from the Federal bench within the next few weeks. His term is for six years, beginning March 4 next.

Ends Long Deadlock.

Charleston, W. Va., February 21.—Nathan E. Goff, Judge of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, a Republican, was elected United States Senator to-day by a joint session of the West Virginia Legislature and the West Virginia Democratic Convention.

The election of Judge Goff, which broke a long deadlock, came only after two appeals of Governor-Elect Hatfield for harmony during a Republican caucus on the last day of the present legislative session.

After prolonged sessions during the night to center strength for one candidate, the Republican caucus practically agreed to support Judge Goff. This conclusion was not reached until after daylight. Many members of the Legislature failed to go to bed, and attended the legislative session later in the day than usual.

The day of the day—the fifteenth joint ballot since the beginning of the Legislature—resulted in Judge Goff getting sixty of the sixty-eight Republican votes, and the Republican members of the Legislature recently elected accepting bribes in connection with the candidacy of Colonel William Seymour Edwards, did not vote. Two members were absent. Clarence W. Watson received forty-three of the total forty-eight Democratic votes, the others being scattered.

Judge Goff announced he would resign from the Federal bench within the next few weeks. His term is for six years, beginning March 4 next.

Ends Long Deadlock.

Charleston, W. Va., February 21.—Nathan E. Goff, Judge of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, a Republican, was elected United States Senator to-day by a joint session of the West Virginia Legislature and the West Virginia Democratic Convention.

The election of Judge Goff, which broke a long deadlock, came only after two appeals of Governor-Elect Hatfield for harmony during a Republican caucus on the last day of the present legislative session.

After prolonged sessions during the night to center strength for one candidate, the Republican caucus practically agreed to support Judge Goff. This conclusion was not reached until after daylight. Many members of the Legislature failed to go to bed, and attended the legislative session later in the day than usual.

The day of the day—the fifteenth joint ballot since the beginning of the Legislature—resulted in Judge Goff getting sixty of the sixty-eight Republican votes, and the Republican members of the Legislature recently elected accepting bribes in connection with the candidacy of Colonel William Seymour Edwards, did not vote. Two members were absent. Clarence W. Watson received forty-three of the total forty-eight Democratic votes, the others being scattered.

Judge Goff announced he would resign from the Federal bench within the next few weeks. His term is for six years, beginning March 4 next.

NORFOLK MAN ELECTED

DR. SOUTHGATE LEIGH, Chosen President of the Tri-State Medical Association.

MEETS NEXT YEAR AT CHARLOTTE

Tri-State Medical Association Ends Annual Session.

Norfolk, Va., February 21.—The Tri-State Medical Association of Virginia and the Carolinas adjourned here to-day to meet next year at Charlotte, N. C. Officers were elected as follows: President, Dr. Southgate Leigh, of Norfolk; vice-presidents, Dr. Stephen Harnsburger, of Catlett; Dr. E. Reid Russell, of Asheville, N. C., and Dr. J. H. Taylor, of Columbia, S. C.; secretary, Dr. R. H. Hughes, of Laurens, S. C.

The meeting just adjourned saw the beginning of an active movement for the eradication of malaria from the South Atlantic seaboard States.

The evening of March 3, the First Regiment, Maryland National Guard, will arrive in Washington, and will be met by a special train in the afternoon, followed by the Fifth Regiment, Colonel Rawling commanding, 600 men. The Fourth Regiment, 600 men, will leave the night before the inauguration.

The indications are that the West also will be well represented. The Duckworth Club, of Cincinnati, 200 people, will arrive in Washington by special train early or so before the inauguration. The Democratic organization of Milwaukee, 100 people, will arrive by special train prior to the 4th, though the exact time of arrival of these organizations has not been fixed.

Numerous other political organizations from the West, Southwest and Northwest are arranging to come. One special will carry several hundred citizens of Oklahoma to Washington, it being expected to arrive March 3.

Belts to Lead Students.

The student body of the University of Virginia will come to Washington on the morning of March 4, and will have a place of honor well up in the third division of the procession. J. W. Belts, a Washington boy, who is a native of Kentucky, but whose home here is with his mother, Mrs. James Pryor Tarvin, was commissioned by the university to make all necessary arrangements for the students in Washington, and is expected to lead the contingent in the procession.

Special cars have been provided for the students from Charlottesville by the Southern Railway, and they will live in the cars while in the city, the railroad company having arranged to sidetrack the cars for them.

Young Belts, a school man at the university, and nephew of the student in the Baltimore convention which nominated Wilson, when he did the announcing for Chairman Ollie James of the final vote at the convention.

Senator W. Murray Crane, of Massachusetts, and Senator Bacon, of Georgia, will ride to and from the White House in presidential barouche before and during the parade.

Senator Crane is chairman of the joint congressional committee in charge of the inauguration and Senator Bacon is the Southern Railway.

Senator Overman, of North Carolina, and Representative Rucker, of Missouri, are to ride in the carriage with Vice-President Marshall. The other members of the joint congressional committee, Representatives McKinley, of Illinois, and Garrett, of Tennessee, will ride alone during the parade in a carriage following those of Wilson and Marshall.

The final plans of the inaugural parade are getting so nearly in complete shape that Robert N. Harper, chairman of the civic division, held a conference this morning with Colonel Allen, and to Major-General Wood, grand marshal, for the purpose of making a draft of the list of organizations and the places in line. The inaugural committee is getting ready to print the program and Mr. Harper and Colonel Allen went over the list of the organizations in preparation for this printing.

The inaugural committee has decided to copyright the program and not to furnish the newspaper with copies of it until after the public generally has purchased the supply intended for them.

It was also announced to-day that a delegation of civilians from New Jersey will be given a place well up in the lead of the civic division. This delegation is to consist of one representative civilian from each county in the State of New Jersey, and will be known as the New Jersey Democratic Committee. It will be placed in the first brigade of the civic division, which will be led by Washington.

Many persons seem to be under the impression that the chief of police will give permits to use chairs, stools and boxes along the line of the parade and in front of the grandstands, but the impression is an erroneous one. It was stated at police headquarters to-day.

The law forbids the use of such obstructions, so that persons who carry chairs or stools with them inauguration day will not have an opportunity to use them.

MAN FOR MENIAL TASKS

Illinois Suffragists Admit But One Male Passenger Abroad Train.

Chicago, February 21.—Only one man aside from the train crew will ride on the special which will carry the Illinois suffragists to the March 4 parade in Washington.